DECLARATION OF PAULINA REYES

I, Paulina Reyes, hereby declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 that the following is true and correct.

1. I make this declaration based on my own personal knowledge and if called to testify I could and would do so competently and truthfully to these matters.
2. My name is Paulina Reyes. I am a managing attorney at Immigrant Defenders Law Center (“ImmDef”), licensed to practice law in California. I represent detained and non-detained immigrants in removal proceedings.
3. I represent Andry Jose Hernandez Romero in his removal proceedings. I submit this declaration because I am deeply concerned for my client. Andry was pursuing asylum when he was abruptly moved to Texas and removed under the Alien Enemies Act, without any notice that the government was alleging him to be an alien enemy, and without any notice that he would be removed.
4. Andry is a Venezuelan national. He worked for a government sponsored news channel as a professional makeup artist and identifies as gay. He faced constant discrimination because of his sexual orientation. He and other station employees were forced to promote pro-Maduro content in their social media and to vote in favor of issues supported by that government. He refused and the producers at his government-sponsored station attacked him and threatened to further harm him if he did not comply. Around this same time, he began to be followed by “colectivos,” armed groups operating at the behest of the government, and was threatened by them to support the Maduro government.
5. In response, Andry quit the television station and went into hiding, leaving Venezuela in May 2024.
6. On August 29, 2024, Andry presented at the San Ysidro Port of Entry after making an appointment with the CBP One app. He was questioned about his tattoos, transferred to ICE custody, and sent to Otay Mesa Detention Center (“OMDC”).
7. Andry was put into expedited removal proceedings and received a positive credible fear determination. He was then placed in removal proceedings.
8. At OMDC, he was flagged as a security risk for the sole reason of his tattoos and an allegation that they showed he was associated with Tren de Aragua. During questioning, Andry maintained that he was not part of Tren de Aragua nor affiliated with them in any way.
9. I was retained as pro bono counsel on or about December 6, 2024. While in detention, I maintained constant communication with him, including in-person visits and phone calls. I filed an asylum application on his behalf and evidence to corroborate his asylum claim.

10. Andry was abruptly moved on March 6 or 7 from OMDC to Webb County Detention Center (“WCDC”) in Laredo, Texas, despite still having ongoing immigration proceedings in California. Although I am his attorney, the Office of Enforcement and Removal Operations (“ERO”) did not notify me of the transfer. I found out because my client called me from WCDC.
11. He had a hearing on March 13 at Otay Mesa Immigration Court. ERO in WCDC did not make him available to video conference into that hearing. The hearing was rescheduled to March 17.
12. I have never been able to schedule a call with Andry since he arrived at WCDC. I have only been able to speak to him when he is able to place an outgoing call. He spoke to me on March 7 and reported that about 20 other Venezuelans had also recently been transferred to WCDC, including at least one other person in ongoing proceedings at the Otay Mesa Immigration Court and one individual granted withholding of removal.
13. On the evening of March 13 and again on the morning of March 14, I asked WCDC and ERO for an opportunity to schedule a call with my client.
14. On March 14, I received an email response from ERO that Andry was no longer in WCDC but was not provided information about his location. I called the facility and was again told that he was no longer in WCDC; the person I spoke to did not provide me any further information about where he had been taken and for what reason.
15. That evening, I emailed the duty attorney for the Office of Principal Legal Advisory (“OPLA”) in Otay Mesa to inquire about his custody and confirm whether he would appear at the upcoming hearing on March 17. I did not receive a response.
16. On March 17, Andry was not present at the Master Calendar Hearing. When asked for his location, the OPLA attorney responded that he is “no longer in ICE custody.” The OPLA attorney later confirmed that he had been removed to El Salvador.
17. This was the first time that his forced removal was mentioned by any government official. The OPLA attorney did not provide any further information as to the reason he was removed, and did not respond to the Immigration Judge’s question about how he was removed if there was no removal order.
18. The hearing was continued to April 2, 2025.
19. On March 19, I emailed the duty attorney at OPLA to ask whether Andry was removed subject to the Alien Enemies Act to ask whether there is a process to contact my client while his removal proceedings are ongoing, and whether he would be made available for his next hearing on April 2.
20. ICE Deputy Chief Counsel told me in response to my e-mail: “I can confirm that [Andry] was removed on March 15,” that “[t]here is no process through DHS to facilitate communication with a removed individual,” nor to “facilitate appearance” at the next hearing date, and that “I do not have further information related to your client’s removal.”

I have seen Andry's name on publicly reported lists of people removed to El Salvador under the Alien Enemies Act and know of no other basis that would explain his removal.

21. Andry has no involvement whatsoever with Tren de Aragua.
22. Andry has a few tattoos, including "Mom" next to a crown on one wrist, and "Dad" next to a crown on the other wrist. From a young age, he has been involved with the nationally and culturally famous "Three Kings" (or, "Three Wise Men") festival and performance in his hometown. Additionally, he is a makeup artist for beauty pageants; on his social media he appears promoting those beauty pageants alongside a crown, a common prop that contestants in a pageant would wear.
23. I have attached a true and complete copy of OPLA's evidence against my client (Exhibit A) and photos from his social media (Exhibit B).
24. These crown tattoos are the only basis of the government's assertion, in its filing, that he is connected to Tren de Aragua. An officer says "[t]he crown has been found to be an identifier for a Tren de Aragua gang member" without offering further explanation. On a points-based rubric in the filing used by detention officers to evaluate if someone is a gang member, only the tattoo is mentioned. There are other categories for contact with other gang members, "intelligence information" from other agencies, being identified as a gang member in other documents or by another agency --- none of those categories are indicated for Andry.
25. Andry did not have the opportunity to contest the evidence submitted against him before he was forcibly removed. There is no evidence to believe that he is affiliated in any way with Tren de Aragua and Andry has consistently refuted those claims. He fled Venezuela due to persecution for his political opinion and his sexual orientation and his tattoos have an obvious explanation that has nothing to do with a gang.
26. Everything in this declaration is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and recollection.

Executed on the 27th day of March at San Diego, California.

What To Know

U.S. Border Patrol Chief Patrol Agent Gregory K. Bovino posted on X, formerly Twitter, about the capture of the Venezuelan who had an outstanding warrant for attempted homicide in Redwood City and was previously arrested for grand larceny in New York.

The man had stars on either shoulder, similar to others seen on TdA members, which indicate rank, according to the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Other common tattoos are crowns, which the Texas DPS said was similar to iconography used by the Latin Kings, as well as firearms, grenades, trains, dice, roses, and predatory felines. Text reading "Real Hasta la Muerte", meaning "Till death", and "Hijos de Dios", or "Sons of God", is also sometimes tattooed across the chest or on arms.

Border patrol agents elsewhere have posted similar images across 2024, showing AK-47s on suspects' arms, along with footprints and playing cards.

I am an officer of the United States Department of Homeland Security. I am authorized to administer the immigration laws and to take sworn statements. I want to take your sworn statement regarding your application for admission to the United States. Before I take your statement, I also want to explain your rights, and the purpose and consequences of this interview.

You do not appear to be admissible or to have the required legal papers authorizing your admission to the United States. This may result in your being denied admission and immediately returned to your home country without a hearing. If a decision is made to refuse your admission into the United States, you may be immediately removed from this country, and if so, you may be barred from reentry for a period of 5 years or longer.

This may be your only opportunity to present information to me and the Department of Homeland Security to make a decision. It is very important that you tell me the truth. If you lie or give misinformation, you may be subject to criminal or civil penalties, or barred from receiving immigration benefits or relief now or in the future.

Except as I will explain to you, you are not entitled to a hearing or review.

U.S. law provides protection to certain persons who face persecution, harm or torture upon return to their home country. If you fear or have a concern about being removed from the United States or about being sent home, you should tell me so during this interview because you may not have another chance. You will have the opportunity to speak privately and confidentially to another officer about your fear or concern. That officer will determine if you should remain in the United States and not be removed because of that fear.

Until a decision is reached in your case, you will remain in the custody of the Department of Homeland Security.

Any statement you make may be used against you in this or any subsequent administrative proceeding.

Q: Do you understand what I've said to you?

A: Yes.

Q: Do you have any questions?

A: No.

Q: What language are you comfortable speaking with me?

A: Spanish.

Q: Are you willing to answer my questions at this time?

A: Yes.

Q: Do you swear or affirm that all the statements you are about to make are true and complete?

A: Yes.

Q: Are you under the effects of any medication, drugs or alcohol at this time?

A: No.
